

Abstract

Title: Integration phenomena Paralympic cyclists.

Objectives of work: Try to find integration phenomena in relation to sport training and its impact on selected cyclists with disabilities.

Methods: Case report structured interview, data collection method - the method of interrogation.

Results: Based on case studies developed a structured interview, we found differences in the integration, which we have divided into phases - before obtaining disability, acclimatization, sports integration. Furthermore, we found differences in load on the three specific physical disabilities.

Keywords: Disability, handicap, disabled sports training, biking persons with disabilities.